Dear Patron:

We are preparing for a most special season at the Young Victorian Theatre. 2010 marks the 40th consecutive year of Gilbert & Sullivan in Baltimore by our company. It is hard to believe that what started as a group of eager and energetic high school and college performers who just wanted to "put on a show" and have some fun, has evolved into Baltimore's longest tenured and most stable musical theatre company.

We are proud to present, as our 40th Anniversary production, Gilbert & Sullivan's classic Iolanthe, which was the first production we did (under the name of Gilman Summer Theatre) in 1971, starring Baltimore's own Bess Armstrong in the lead role.

Over the past 40 years, through the hard work and dedication of our staff, artists, and Board of Directors, we have developed into a true Baltimore Institution, and we thank you, our loyal Patrons, for your enthusiastic attendance and support of Young Vic.

Our endowments are strong, our reserve fund has never been touched, and we have been conservative and cautious in our growth.

We hope that you will consider a gift to our Annual Giving Campaign in celebration of our 40th Year. Attached is the schedule and patronage form.

We are also pleased to tell you that our directors, Jim Harp and Philip Collister, will return for what promises to be a terrific anniversary season.

We look forward to seeing you in July.

Sincerely,

Stephen J. Cullen
